

“Tony is a world-class teacher who is also a great coach. Your game will improve drastically under his watchful eyes.”

- Bill Sellers, Pro Emeritus CC Orlando

“Tony gave me a plan I can now count on. I improved during the lesson and continued to get better after going home.”

- Pat Gallivan, Chicago, Illinois

20 year PGA Teaching Professional, Tony Wilson, also offers the “Serious Golfer” program to you. His half and full day sessions are the most productive learning experiences a student can obtain. They improve during the lesson and leave knowing how to continue doing so.

Tony will provide “clear and concise” golf instruction and make you smarter.” The following easy to understand instructional cornerstones will improve your game while creating a path to life-long enjoyment of golf:

1. The Four Absolutes plus One Essential
2. Incremental building of your swing from the hole out to the tee

“After over 30 years of teaching the golf swing, I am convinced that a sustained period of instruction is the best way to make immediate improvements that last beyond the lesson. Taking sufficient time to change a student’s perception and attitude about how to improve their game makes their journey more rewarding and my teaching much more effective.”
